

TUESDAY 6 JUNE 2023

13:00 – 18:00

Psychodynamic aspects in chronic, medical illness

Facilitator: Maya Kirszenbaum, Paris, FR

Moderators: Ulrike Smrekar, Innsbruck, AT; Pavla Hodkova, Prague, CZ; Sue Braun, Brussels, BE; Urszula Borawska – Kowalczyk, Warsaw, PL

- 13:00 – 14:30      “A Friendly approach of the basics in psychoanalysis”
- 14:30 – 14:45:      LUNCH/COFFEE BREAK
- 14:45 – 16:15:      “Inside Freud's head : Free association about the Daily life psychopathology”
- 16:15 – 16:30:      COFFEE BREAK
- 16:30 – 18:00:      “From Freud’s couch to Kaftrio: bringing the psychodynamic approach in our practice”

Maya Kirszenbaum is a Clinical Psychologist and a Licensed Psychotherapist. She has been working in CF since 2005, in the Hôpital Necker Enfants-malades in Paris, France. She has a M.A. in Clinical Psychology and Psychopathology and an M.S. Psychoanalysis and Medicine. To validate her M.S. she wrote a memoir “Adolescence and CF : Chronicle of a Death Foretold”. She is currently working on her PhD where she is interested in the adolescence psychological processes when living with CF, and also investigating the way those subjects are building their relationships with their peers.

Maya was for many years a Board Member of several scientific or medical committees (EFCS, Vaincre la Mucoviscidose, the EPSIG...).

